

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Admission 101: Demystifying the College Admission Process Sunday and Monday, February 16 & 17

Sunday, Feb. 16

- 11 a.m. - 12 p.m. Registration
College Center at Crozier-Williams
- 12:00 - 1:00 p.m. Welcome Lunch
Cro's Nest, Crozier-Williams
- 1:00 - 2:00 p.m. What Are Admission Officers Looking For?
Andy Strickler, dean of admission and financial aid, will discuss the selective college admission process.
1941 Room, Crozier-Williams
- 2:00 - 3:00 p.m. Campus Tour
Departs from the front steps of Crozier-Williams
- 3:00 - 3:10 p.m. Break
- 3:10 - 4:00 p.m. Student Interviewing Skills and Techniques
How can you make the best impression in a college interview? Ben Brown, assistant director of admission, and Connecticut College senior student interviewers present.
1941 Room, Crozier-Williams
- 4:10 - 5:30 p.m. Mock Admission Committee for Students
Students and families work with Office of Admission professionals to review college applications and choose successful candidates.
1941 Room, Crozier-Williams
- 5:30 - 6:30 p.m. Welcome to the Neighborhood!
Get a taste of Connecticut College — literally. Meet current students and enjoy dinner together in Harris Refectory.
Group will gather in the Crozier-Williams lobby and leave for Harris at 5:30 p.m.

Monday, Feb. 17

- All Day Sit in on a College Class
Please refer to the class list and sit in on a class of your choosing at any time throughout the day. Class list will be provided upon check-in
- 10:15 - 11:05 a.m. Your Life at Conn
Get an overview of the Conn experience—academics, community and extracurriculars. Learn about our Connections curriculum, the resources and support available to students, and the Honor Code that sets the tone for life on our close-knit campus.
John C. Evans Hall, Cummings Arts Center (D3)
- Campus Tour
Departs from Castle Court (outside of Palmer Auditorium)

- 11:15 – 12:05 p.m. Lunch, Session A
 Meet our professors and learn more about academic departments and majors, interdisciplinary centers and programs. Representatives at assigned tables will be happy to share information and answer your questions.
Class of 1962 Room, College Center at Crozier-Williams
- 12:15 – 1:05 p.m. Lunch, Session B
 Meet our professors and learn more about academic departments and majors, interdisciplinary centers and programs. Representatives at assigned tables will be happy to share information and answer your questions.
Class of 1962 Room, College Center at Crozier-Williams
- 1:15 – 2:05 p.m. Career Preparation, Professional Development and Internships
 Conn's career advising program starts day one and continues for the next four years. Hear from students as they share stories from their internships, many funded by the College, and the comprehensive preparation and support they receive at Conn.
1941 Room, Second Floor, College Center at Crozier-Williams
- STEM Tour
 Tour our state-of-the-art science center and other facilities with faculty from the departments of astronomy, behavioral neuroscience, biology, botany, chemistry, computer science, environmental studies, geophysics and physics.
Tour Departs from the Front Lobby on the Ground Floor of the Science Center at New London Hall
- 2:15 – 3:05 p.m. What's an FYS?
 Your First-Year Seminar is the very first class you'll take at Conn. It's where you'll become familiar with our Connections curriculum, where you'll meet your team of advisers, and where you'll begin to build the foundation for your college career and life after. Join us for one of these special First-Year Seminars we're conducting just for you!
Ernst Common Room, Blaustein Humanities Center (F2)
- Financial Aid 101
 Members of the financial aid staff will explain the ins and outs of financial aid, including the Net Price Calculator, as well as required forms and deadlines for our need-based aid process.
John C. Evans Hall, Cummings Arts Center (D3)
- The Arts: A Tour
 Learn how the arts at Conn challenge and support the experiential and intellectual development of students. Departments offering tours include dance, music, studio art and theater.
Tour Starts in the Joanne Toor Cummings Gallery, Cummings Arts Center
- 3:15 – 4 p.m. Farewell Gathering
 Have you ever had a Camel Cookie? Don't miss this delicious Connecticut College tradition, or your chance to get more information and answers from staff and students.
Joanne Toor Cummings Gallery, Cummings Arts Center

The 1941 Room and Cro's Nest are on the second floor of the College Center at Crozier-Williams.
 Thank you for participating in the Admission 101 program.

We welcome your comments. Please email the Office of Alumni Engagement at alumni@conncoll.edu or call 860-439-2302.

Office of Admission: 860-439-2200
 Office of Alumni Engagement: 860-439-2300